Carol Ann –

Attached is OPPT's update to the draft list of accomplishments. As mentioned, we expanded our entries significantly to try to match Alex's direction from the weekend; this has now shifted to be closer to the format that was used last year.

This is not in redline form (as our changes were significant), but I thought an overview of the changes made in each area might be helpful:

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

Hope this is closer to the bill for Alex's needs – please let us know if you have any questions at all.

Best,
Alison

All,

Thank you for the excellent start. I presume we used the weekly reports to pull this list of “finalists.” It also helped very much to see what EPA did at the end of 2018. I offer these thoughts:

Ex. 5 Deliberative Process (DP)

We are in great shape so far. Thanks to all.

Subject: For Alex's Weekend Binder: DRAFT 2019 Accomplishments

Alex -- Attached is a draft of OCSPP's 2019 Accomplishments. I'm not ready for you to edit it yet. I send this to you simply to elicit your feedback on our choices. The draft also identifies the runners-up (not listed below).

Table of Contents:

1. TSCA Chemical Substance Inventory
2. MC Ban
3. Asbestos SNUR
4. Dust-Lead Hazards Standards
5. Reducing Animal Testing
6. Reducing Avian Testing
7. Improving ESA process
8. Pesticides actions & statistics

Based on OPPT's and OPP's feedback on choices and text (which I expect on Monday), I'll have a near-final draft for you Tuesday Dec. 10 afternoon.

Our deadline to OPA: Friday December 13.

Other information: OPA seeks from each office a list of accomplishments, accompanied by brief descriptions and explanations why the accomplishment is significant. Per OPA's request, we'll also supply links to press releases, news articles and other background information. For awareness, I've attached OCSPP's two pages from EPA's 2018 Accomplishments report, so that you can see how they used our list last year.
